AMANDA BUTLER
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA HEAD COACH

FIFTH YEAR AS UF HEAD COACH • SEVENTH YEAR OVERALL AS A HEAD COACH

Combine passion, pride, toughness, intensity, humor, wittiness, competitiveness, leadership and mix in a healthy dose of a swagger and you have Amanda Butler, who in 2011-12 will enter her fifth year as head coach of the University of Florida women's basketball team.

All four of her Gator teams have earned a postseason berth – the first time any of the previous eight coaches in program history has been able to do so.

Butler has already amassed 78 victories with the Orange & Blue, the most of any coach in program history through their respective first four seasons.

Butler also has made the O'Connell Center a tough venue for opponents, as her Gators have won 89.2 percent of their games against non-conference foes, posting a 33-4 home record during her four-year tenure.

season's end was remarkable when such an accomplishment seemed nearly impossible just two years prior to her arrival in Gainesville.

In fact, the 2008-09 season will go down as one of the most successful campaigns in program history.

In addition to tying the school record with 24 victories during the year, Florida marched into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the seventh time in history. In the team's first trip to the round of 32 since 2004, the 2008-09 squad had its season close on the road at top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Connecticut. Florida ended the year rated among the top-25 in both national polls for the first time since 2002.

Also during the 2008-09 season, the Gators compiled a program-record 15-game winning streak, as well as a record seven-

Amanda Butler was in her second season as a Gator assistant coach when DeLisha Milton was named the program's first First-Team WBCA All-American.

"She's a competitor. She is fierce on the court, but a fun person to be around off it. She played at Florida, so I think she truly bleeds orange and blue. She won't settle for anything less than number one."

-- UF SENIOR JORDAN JONES ON AMANDA BUTLER

In the 37-year history of the Florida women's basketball program, the team has posted 20 wins 10 times, with Butler accounting for two of those, including the 20-victory campaign in 2010-11.

That final 20-win season was compiled by an extremely young and inexperienced team that returned only two starters and listed one scarcely-used senior on its roster.

Every step along her career path to date has seemingly resulted in another record, milestone or accomplishment.

Take the 2008-09 season for example. The mere fact that Florida was even mentioned as a possible NCAA Tournament team by game run against Southeastern Conference foes that helped UF finish tied for fourth in the 12-team league and earn a first-round bye in the SEC Tournament for the seventh time in the 30-year history of the event. The 2008-09 Gators found themselves in the top-10 of the Associated Press national poll, when the media tabbed UF No. 9 on Feb. 9, 2009, the team's first top-10 showing since Feb. 12, 2001.

When Florida earned the No. 23 spot in the Dec. 8, 2008 Associated Press national poll, Butler joined an elite list of women. She became one of only 24 women in the history of NCAA Division I women's basketball who had played for a team that was ranked in the AP Top-25 and later coached a team that earned a top-25 ranking. Even more rare was the fact the Butler played for and coached the SAME team that earned a top-25 ranking, becoming only the sixth woman ever to accomplish that feat.

Statistically, the 2008-09 Gators shattered the program record by hitting 221 three-pointers, breaking the old mark of 179 set the previous season.

The list of team records set or tied, as well as individual accomplishments is long, but in the end came as little surprise to a team that adopted the mantra of being "Bigger & Better" at the beginning of the 2008-09 year and then backed it up with unselfish play, inspiring coaching leadership and a belief that it could achieve.

In spite of losing to graduation two of the most statistically impressive players in program history, the 2009-10 Gators marched along and found a way to earn an appearance in their third consecutive postseason tournament.

The 2009-10 season marked the 11th time in Butler's 15 years on the sidelines her team has competed in the postseason, including five NCAA Tournament appearances.

HEAD COACH AMANDA BUTLER

Amanda Butler hosted the 2009 and 2011 Ronald McDonald House of Gainesville's Pro-Am Golf Tournament and Auction.

Florida has had eight different full-time women's basketball head coaches and Butler is the first to lead the Gators to a postseason berth in each of her first three years with the program.

During her initial three years at Florida, Butler compiled 58 wins, seven more than her college coach Carol Ross, whose 247 victories in 12 years are the most in UF program history.

Ross has called Butler the "toughest Gator ever to wear the Florida uniform." That grittiness and feistiness held true on the sideline in 2009-10, when she ruptured her left Achilles tendon on Oct. 24, 2009, as she was quarterbacking her then-undefeated flag football team in The Swamp Bowl, the name given to the playoff round of the on-campus league event.

In spite of the injury, Butler never missed a beat, attending the he Backcourt Club's annual membership drive event and the team's practice the next day. She underwent successful surgery on Oct. 26 and was back on the sideline Oct. 28. The next day, she volunteered her time at the Children's Miracle Network Art Auction that featured all art created by the pediatric patients at Shands Hospital in Gainesville.

During Butler's four-year tutelage in Gainesville, a Gator has been named First-Team All-SEC three times and awarded a spot on the All-SEC Freshman Team three times, as well.

A total of six Gators earned a place on the 2009-10 SEC Academic Honor Roll, tying for the most of any other league team.

In each of her four years, including both of her first two seasons, the Gators finished higher in the final SEC regular-season standings than predicted during the preseason by both the coaches and media. Florida was tabbed to finish sixth in 2008-09. The Gators' 9-5 league record tied with Tennessee for fourth place, the team's highest finish since the 2003-04 squad also tied for fourth in the SEC race. The 2008-09 Gators earned a first-round bye in the SEC Tournament after holding the tiebreaker against the Lady Vols, whom they defeated during the regular season.

Amanda Butler became the first Gator head coach to guide the team to a postseason berth in their first year with the program and the first to reach the postseason in her first two years at the helm, as the 2008-09 Gators competed in the NCAA Tournament. UF has competed in the postseason every year under Butler.

"Coach Butler's a great coach. She's teaches you to work hard in practice. When you don't feel like practicing or going to conditioning workouts, she helps you understand the importance of it late in the season and you're more motivated to work hard.

"She taught me everything to this stage of my career. She taught me how to take care of the ball and about making good decisions on and off the court."

-- 2009 First-Team All-SEC Performer Sha Brooks (2005-09) on Amanda Butler

After inheriting virtually the same squad that won just nine games the previous year (2006-07), Butler and her staff produced the greatest one-year turnaround by a coach in their first year in program history, winning 19 games while facing 17 different teams that earned a postseason bid. Butler also became the program's first head coach to guide Florida to a postseason berth in their debut year, as the squad competed in the WNIT, reaching the third round.

Florida shattered the 2007-08 preseason expectations of the SEC head coaches, who picked the Gators to finish 11th in the final standings. The Gators finished four places ahead of those predictions, posting a 6-8 record and tying for seventh in the mighty SEC that once again produced two of the Final Four teams, including the national champion.

After seeing first-hand Butler's version of the Gators, Hall of Fame and SEC-veteran coach Van Chancellor praised, "I can remember when she (Coach Butler) played here (at UF) and she was gritty and tough and this team has exactly her personality. I think she's done a great job."

The transformation in the Gators' attitude began on April 13, 2007, when UF Athletics Director Jeremy Foley identified Butler, one of the nation's top young coaching talents as well as a former four-year starter and two-year assistant coach for Florida, as the ninth head coach in Gator women's basketball history.

Florida experienced immediate success on the court in 2007-08, as mentioned earlier, as well as off the court, as Butler promised it would. The Gators claimed the coveted UAA Life Skills Cup at the end of the academic year – and again in 2010-11 - after becoming the Florida athletic team that excelled most in the five areas of the CHAMPS Life Skills program. Teams earned points for participating in any Life Skills programming, including but not limited to: SAAC, Goodwill Gators (community outreach), workshops and presentations. The 2008-09 squad placed second in the final tally and third in 2009-10.

Amanda Butler was the Gators' starting point guard when UF earned its first-ever NCAA Tournament bid. She started 99 of the 114 games she played during her four-year career.

She returned to her alma mater, where she played for the Gators from 1990-94. Butler earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences with honors on May 6, 1995, and was awarded a Master of Exercise and Sport Sciences on Aug. 9, 1997.

Butler, who was the youngest of the SEC's 12 head coaches during her first four seasons (she will be the second-youngest in 2011-12), turned 39 during the 2011 SEC Tournament and possesses 16 years of college coaching experience, including two as the head coach of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and now four completed with the Gators.

During her two years as head coach at Charlotte, Butler compiled a 40-22 record that included two WNIT berths and a share of the 49ers first-ever Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season championship. Her debut season resulted in an overall record of 21-9, the most wins ever by a Charlotte coach in their first year, as Butler was recognized as the league's Coach of the Year. The 2006-07 49ers posted a 19-13 overall mark, advancing to the WNIT second round before losing to Virginia, 74-72.

Butler joined the Charlotte staff on May 4, 2001, as an assistant under first-year head coach Katie Meier and helped the 49ers to a 16-13 record, the program's first winning season in eight years. In her second year as an assistant coach at Charlotte, the 49ers captured the 2003 Conference USA Regular-Season title and earned the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

She was promoted to Associate Head Coach the following season. When Meier departed one year later to take the head job at the University of Miami (Fla.), Butler became the logical choice to assume the 49ers head position.

Butler emerged as a proven recruiter, bringing to Charlotte four All-Atlantic 10 selections, four Conference USA All-Freshman team members and one All-

"Coach Butler is very energetic and motivating. She really cares about people on and off the court. She's easy to talk to and very playful and funny."

– 2009 First-Team All-SEC Performer Marshae Dotson (2005-09) on Amanda Butler

UF Coaches through their first FOUR years

Five coaches have guided the Gators at least four years, and Amanda Butler's 78 victories are the most compiled through the first four seasons.

Gator Coach	First 4 years
Mickie DeMoss	45-68
Carol Higginbottom	46-66
Carol Ross	73-41

Amanda Butler	78-54

Conference USA honoree.

She also embraced the local community, as 23 of the top 24 attendances for women's basketball at Charlotte came during Butler's five seasons with the 49ers.

Prior to her arrival in Charlotte, Butler spent four seasons (1997-2001) as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University in Tennessee, where then-head coach Susie Gardner hired her to take over the team's recruiting efforts. It didn't take long for Butler to make an impact.

One of Butler's recruits, Brooke Armistead, became the OVC Freshman of the Year in 2000 and closed her career as the 2003 OVC Player of the Year, as well as a Second-Team Verizon Academic All-American. Also under Butler's keen eye for talent, Austin Peay became the first OVC school to land back-to-back league Freshmen of the Year recipients, with Armistead in 2000 followed the next season by Gerlonda Hardin, who emerged as the league's 2004 Player of the Year and collected Third-Team Academic All-America honors. Armistead became the school's all-time leading scorer and the first player in APSU history to be drafted by the WNBA.

Her final season working under Gardner resulted in the Lady Govs' winning the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament for just the second time in program history and making their second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament, joining the 1996 APSU team in the "Big Dance" and sparking a run of four consecutive NCAA appearances for the program.

"Even though we are from the same hometown, I never really met Amanda until she became my assistant coach at Austin Peay," shared Gardner, who Butler hired as an assistant coach at Florida during her first three years in Gainesville. "Before Amanda joined the staff, we weren't really winning. Amanda brought in the great players who helped us turn the corner and become a consistent NCAA Tournament team. Even though she was a young assistant, watching the way she managed the game and the way she interacted with people, I knew that Amanda was special and that one day soon she would be a head coach."

Jaterra Bonds became the third Gator in four years under Coach Amanda Butler's guidance to earn a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team, doing so in 2011.

Under the development of Amanda Butler, Jennifer George earned a spot on the 2010 SEC All-Freshman Team.

Given her talents as a collegiate coach, it comes as no surprise that Butler has played a role in some of the most successful seasons in Florida history. Upon graduation, then-Florida coach Ross hired Butler as the Gators' assistant coach. That 1995-96 squad compiled a 21-9 record and earned a berth into the NCAAs. The following season, the Gators won a program-record 24 games and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, falling to Old Dominion, 53-51.

Florida enjoyed two of its best finishes in the SEC Tournament during Butler's time as an assistant, with the Gators advancing to the semifinals for the first time in program history during the 1996 campaign and followed it with the team's first – and still only – appearance in the championship game.

On the court, the 5-foot-8 guard immediately took charge of the team from her first day at Florida, also the rookie season for Ross as head coach, as Butler started 99 of the 114 games she played during her career. During her junior and senior seasons, she led the Gators to the first two NCAA Tournament appearances in program history that began a run of seven consecutive trips to the "Big Dance."

Butler, who was a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was voted a finalist on the CoSIDA Academic All-America District Team, completed her Gator career ranked second on the program's all-time assists list with 401, while ranking among top-three for career three-pointers made (77) and attempted (278). The team captain during her senior season, Butler helped the Gators compile 73 victories during her tenure, the best four-year total in school history at that time, and to 21 SEC wins, also the most during a four-year span.

A native of Mt. Juliet, Tenn., Butler enjoyed a stellar prep career at Mt. Juliet High School, where she tallied over 1,400 points and received All-Mid-State honors and All-District honors for three straight years, including first-team recognition in 1989 and 1990. Butler, who graduated in the top 10 percent of her senior class, is the daughter of Stephen and Barbara Butler.

Bonus Butler Bites

- Florida has had eight different full-time women's basketball head coaches and Amanda Butler became one of only two Gator coaches who have won at least 20 games in their second season. In 2008-09, Butler joined Debbie Yow, whose second Gator team went 22-9 in 1984-85; Carol Ross (the winningest Gator coach with 247 victories) posted seven 20-win seasons, but didn't net her first until her fourth year, when Butler was the Gators' senior captain.
- When Florida earned the No. 23 spot in the Dec. 8, 2008 Associated Press ranking, Amanda Butler became only the sixth woman in the history of NCAA Division I Basketball to play for and coach the SAME team that earned a top-25 ranking.
- Amanda Butler became the eighth different full-time head coach in the 36-year history of the Florida women's basketball program ... and the FIRST to guide the Gators to a postseason berth in each of her first four years. In 2007-08, Butler became the FIRST to lead the Gators to a postseason bid in their first year at UF.
- Amanda Butler's 43 wins are the most by a Gator coach through their first two years in program history ... while her 58 are the most through three years at UF and her 78 are the most through four seasons.
- Amanda Butler was the Gator's starting point guard when UF earned its first-ever NCAA Tournament bid. She started 99 of the 114 games she played during her four-year career.

BRENDA MOCK KIRKPATRICK
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA ASSISTANT COACH

Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick enters her fifth year in 2011-12 as an assistant coach at the University of Florida, traveling to Gainesville after spending the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons in a similar position at UNC Charlotte under head coach Amanda Butler.

Kirkpatrick gained additional coaching and playing experience from the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), where she spent two years as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech (2002-04) and was a four-year letterwinner at Wake Forest (1997-2001). She also collected knowledge as an assistant coach at Jacksonville University during the 2004-05 season.

During the 2011 summer, Kirkpatrick was invited to return to her alma mater as a presenter for the two-day sports conference, "Losing to Win: Discussions of Race and Intercollegiate Sports."

When Butler was named the Gators' head coach on April 13, 2007, it was an easy decision for her to ask Kirkpatrick to make the move to Gainesville with her. During their two years together in Charlotte, the 49ers compiled 40 wins, captured a share of the 2006 Atlantic 10 regular-season championship and earned a pair of postseason berths.

Kirkpatrick, like the other Gator assistant coaches, will head an academic team which is comprised of current squad members who report directly to her with progress of their classroom endeavors, supplementing the attention each player receives from Judy Traveis, the Gators' academic advisor.

Additionally, Kirkpatrick works closely with fellow assistant coach David Lowery as the Gators' recruiting coordinator, while aids in the scouting of opponents. She pairs with assistant coach Murriel Page in the development of the post players for the second consecutive year, after providing tutelage of the guards for the first three seasons during when Trumae Lucas earned a spot on the 2009 Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team.

Kirkpatrick also coached the guards at Charlotte, helping Sakellie Daniels earn First-Team All-Atlantic 10 Conference honors in 2006 and Wendy Stywalt a place on the A-10 All-Rookie Team in 2007.

Prior to joining the 49ers on Butler's inaugural staff, Kirkpatrick was an assistant coach at Jacksonville for the 2004-05 season. During that time, Kirkpatrick worked primarily with the Dolphins' post players, while assuming the role of recruiting coordinator and handling scouting duties.

Kirkpatrick broke into the coaching ranks for the 2002-03 season at Georgia Tech under then-head coach Agnus Berenato, helping the Yellow Jackets win 20 games and earn a bid into the NCAA Tournament for only the second time in program history. Berenato departed following that record-setting campaign for the University of Pittsburgh, while Kirkpatrick remained on staff in Atlanta for 2003-04 before heading to Jacksonville.

A successful collegiate playing tenure afforded Kirkpatrick the opportunity to play professionally in France for Nantes-Reze 44 during the 2001-02 season before launching her coaching career.

Kirkpatrick earned a bachelor's of arts in history and sociology in 2000 and a master of arts in education in 2001 from Wake Forest University. She enjoyed an outstanding career in Winston-Salem, where the two-time captain averaged 7.2 points and 5.1 rebounds per contest during her four-year career. As a senior in 2000-01, the six-foot forward garnered honorable mention All-ACC honors after contributing 10 points and 6.2 rebounds per game. During her time as a Demon Deacon, Kirkpatrick was a first-team academic all-district selection and a four-year member of the ACC Student-Athlete Honor Roll. Despite having to take a medical redshirt (ACL) for the 1996-97 season that delayed her collegiate debut, Kirkpatrick did not miss a game during her four-year career, appearing in all 111 contests and earning 57 starts.

The daughter of Weaver and Brenda Kirkpatrick, she is most often referred to as 'Coach Mock' or 'Mock,' which is her middle name, also her mother's maiden name.

DAVID LOWERY
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA ASSISTANT COACH

The 2011-12 season marks the fifth year for David Lowery (pronounced: LOW - rhymes with NOW -ree) as an assistant coach at the University of Florida.

Lowery, like the other Gator assistant coaches, will head an academic team which is comprised of current squad members who report directly to him with progress of their classroom endeavors, supplementing the attention each player receives from Judy Traveis, the Gators' academic advisor.

Additionally, Lowery will work closely with fellow assistant coach Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick as the Gators' recruiting coordinator, while serving as the team's liaison with the UF marketing and promotions department. He aids in the scouting of opponents and oversees the development of the guards.

An enthusiastic individual, Lowery continued to show dedication to his craft by accepting an invitation to participate during May of 2010 in VILLA 7, considered the "next generation of rising head coaches." Lowery was exposed to a "variety of topics designed to help ease their transition into the first chair," as outlined in the agenda.

During the 2008 summer, Lowery participated in a three-day seminar offered through the Black Coaches Administration entitled, "Achieving Coaching Excellence" or "ACE." At the invitation-only event, Lowery received intense training that exposed the participants to life as a head coach and prepared them for all aspects of being the leader of a program, while helping them become the best assistant they can be.

Lowery also has participated in the Nike Coaches Clinic the last three years in Tunica, Miss.

Lowery's path to Gainesville began at Mississippi State University, where he earned his undergraduate degree while spending four years as a student manager and later as a graduate assistant coach for the Lady Bulldogs (2000-01). He left Starkville to take a full-time assistant coaching position at Davidson College (2001-05), before Amanda Butler brought him to UNC Charlotte (2005-07) as part of her inaugural 49ers coaching staff and eventually to Florida when Butler was named the Gators' head coach on April 13, 2007.

During their two years together in Charlotte, Butler and Lowery helped the 49ers compile 40 wins, capture a share of the 2006 Atlantic 10 regular-season championship and earn a pair of postseason berths.

Under Lowery's guidance at Charlotte, senior forward Pam Brown was named First Team All-Atlantic 10 in 2006 and sophomore center Danielle Burgin became a Third-Team All-Atlantic 10 selection in 2007.

Prior to his stint at Charlotte, Lowery was an assistant coach at nearby Davidson College for four years, earning a position on Annette Watt's initial staff which inherited a team that won just nine games the year prior to their arrival. The Wildcats improved their win total each season, culminating in Davidson's 2005 runner-up spot in the Southern Conference - the best regular-season finish in program history.

Lowery earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Mississippi State in December of 2000. While completing his undergraduate work, Lowery served as a practice player for the Lady Bulldogs, working with some of the SEC's top players, including LaToya Thomas, who was a four-time first-team Kodak All-American and the No. 1 overall selection in the 2003 WNBA draft. He spent the second half of the 2000-01 season as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State, helping the Lady Bulldogs reach the WNIT in the midst of a six-year run of postseason appearances.

Lowery is a native of Kosciusko, Miss., which sports a population of less than 7,500 and has the distinction of being the birthplace of Oprah Winfrey. He graduated with honors from Kosciusko High School, where he was a four-year letterwinner on the basketball team and was captain of the "Big Red" marching band drumline. Lowery is the father of a 14-year old daughter, Kendall Arvryzena Hightower.

MURRIEL PAGE
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA ASSISTANT COACH

Murriel Page, one of the most decorated players in University of Florida women's basketball history, returned to her alma mater as an assistant coach in August of 2010 and in 2011-12 begins her second year on the Gator sideline.

A consensus first-team All-American at UF in 1998, Page has been playing professional basketball during the 12 years since graduating from the university, including a storied 11-year WNBA career.

"Murriel's professional experience, her passion for the Gators and the quality of person that she is makes her the perfect fit for our program," said head coach Amanda Butler, who was a UF assistant coach during Page's sophomore and junior seasons with the Gators. "We looked at a number of different applicants from a variety of backgrounds and locations and Murriel stood out to everyone.

"Even during her time playing for the Gators, Murriel was a fantastic recruiter," Butler continued. "She has tremendous knowledge of the game on so many levels. She's played against the best basketball players and professional programs in the world. Her work ethic is unmatched and her enthusiasm is contagious. Our players respect her and are excited about learning from her. We're bringing a Gator home and I'm excited about that."

Page, who was inducted into UF's Athletic Hall of Fame on April 17, 2009, suited up for the Gators from 1994-98, when she earned first team All-Southeastern Conference in 1997 and 1998, and was one of three players who was a unanimous selection on the 1998 squad (with Tennessee's Chamique Holdsclaw & Alabama's Dominique Canty). She was a finalist for the 1998 Naismith Player of the Year, a finalist for the 1998 Wade Trophy, among the top vote getters for the 1998 AP National Player of the Year and was one of six finalists for the Honda Award for Basketball, the first-ever Gator to reach this stage of the award. Her 12.6 rebound average per game during her senior year ranked No. 2 nationally (behind Howard's Alicia Hill, 12.8 rpg).

"Not many players get the chance to return to their alma mater and give back to their program so I'm very excited and emotional about this opportunity," said Page, who turned down an offer to play professionally in Spain for the upcoming season to coach the Gators.

"I can bring a lot of excitement and enthusiasm to the sideline and the team," Page continued. "From playing in the WNBA and overseas, I bring another perspective of the game. I've walked the same path as the players are now and know the types of things they are experiencing. Hopefully, I can share my own experiences with them and staff and help bring a championship to the program that I tried so hard to do when I was here."

Shortly upon graduating, Page was the third overall pick in the 1998 WNBA draft, as she became the Washington Mystics' first-ever draft selection in franchise history and voted team captain from 2000-05. In March of 2006, "The Original Mystic" was traded prior to Los Angeles, where she was reunited with former Gator frontcourt mate DeLisha Milton-Jones. Page played with the Sparks for three years and had signed a contract to play with the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury for the 2009 season, but tore her Achilles tendon on the final day of training camp and was unable to play.

In 11 WNBA seasons, Page appeared in 354 games, earning 205 starts, while scoring 2,154 points and collecting 1,603 rebounds. She earned the 1999 and 2000 WNBA Bud Light Shooting Champions Award for leading the league in field goal percentage.

During the WNBA off-season, Page suited up for a number of different professional teams in Spain, including Soller from 2008-10, Baloncesto San Jose in 2007-08, with Hondarribia in 2003-04, 2005-07, Ros Casares in 2004-05 and 2001-02, Venezia in Italy in 2002-03 and Mangueira in Brazil in 2000.

A native of Louin, Miss., Page concluded her collegiate career with 1,915 points and 1,251 rebounds, both of which remain the top two numbers in those respective categories all-time in Gator history. She ranked No. 1 at UF for career double-doubles (65), No. 1 for games played (128), No. 2 all-time at UF for rebounding, No. 2 at UF for scoring and No. 2 at UF for career field goal percentage (55.0%). She was No. 6 all-time in SEC history for rebounding, just 21 behind the 1,272 by Vanderbilt's Wendy Scholtens. Page also totaled 103 double-figure scoring games & 67 double-figure rebounding games. UF was 92-36 during her four-year career, won at least 21 games each of those seasons, reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA twice, the NCAA Elite Eight once and earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament every year.

COACHING STAFF

JANNA MAGETTE
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Chemistry and loyalty are two of the most important ingredients found among any successful coaching staff and no one exemplifies those characteristics on Head Coach Amanda Butler's staff stronger than Janna Magette (JAN-uh muh-JET), who in 2011-12 serves as Assistant to the Head Coach for the fifth consecutive year.

When Butler was named the Gators' head coach on April 13, 2007, it was an easy decision for her to ask Magette to make the move to Gainesville with her. Magette and Butler worked for three years together at UNC Charlotte, including the last two when Butler assumed head coaching duties. The more difficult decision may have come on Magette's part, as she willingly chose to forgo her previous role as an assistant coach and welcome different challenges.

"I worked with Amanda for three years at Charlotte and every time she would talk about Florida, she would get so excited. She's so passionate about this place," Magette said. "When the opportunity came to remain part of her staff and work at a place like Florida, it was a very easy decision for me."

Magette wears several different hats for the Gators, performing duties ranging from staff academic liaison to camp and coaching clinic's coordinator to working with practice and class schedules. She also oversees the program's equipment contract and inventory with NIKE and coordinates the team's travel.

In 2009-10, Magette began a new task of assembling the team's annual schedule, as well as serving as the staff's liaison for the program's official website, www.CoachAmandaButler.com. She received her master's degree from UF in 2010 and during the 2011 fall semester began work toward a PhD in a Leadership Development program in the college of agricultural education and communication.

During the summer of 2009 when Coach Butler was traveling with the U.S. Under 19 World Championships Team, Magette was allowed to fill in as a recruiter, observing and evaluating prep talent at national tournaments. She again slipped on the recruiting hat during the 2010 summer, when assistant coach Susie Gardner left for a head coaching position and Butler took time interviewing to fill that vacancy.

Magette and Butler first began working together at UNC Charlotte, where she was hired by then-49ers head coach Katie Meier as an assistant coach at the start of the 2004-05 season. When Meier left at the end of the year to become the head coach at the University of Miami, Butler was named 49ers' head coach and asked Magette to remain with her in Charlotte. Butler later hired Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick and David Lowery to complete her coaching staff, all of whom made the move to Florida with Butler.

That quartet of Butler, Kirkpatrick, Lowery and Magette gelled during their two years together in Charlotte, as the 49ers compiled 40 wins, captured a share of the 2006 Atlantic 10 regular-season championship and earned a pair of postseason berths.

Magette began her coaching career as an assistant for NCAA Division II Francis Marion University, where she was hired by first-year head coach Valecia Tedder in April of 2004. Among Magette's duties with the Patriots were recruiting, academic support and individual player workouts.

A four-year letter winner from Davidson College, Magette was a standout for the Wildcats, finishing her career as the program's second all-time leading scorer with 1,392 points. A long-range shooting threat, Magette was deadly from behind the arc, holding career marks in three-point field goals (213) and attempts (597). She earned All-Southern Conference honors in her senior campaign, setting a conference record for three-pointers made in a career. She also ranked among the school's all-time leaders in assists (296), steals (239) and free throws made (195-246, 79.3 percent). Among her postseason accolades, Magette earned the 2001 and 2002 Wildcat Award, equivalent to a Most Outstanding Player honor. A two-time Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll member, Magette received her bachelor's degree in religion in 2002.

JEREMY FOLEY
ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Jeremy N. Foley, who has handled virtually every aspect of the University of Florida's $96 million athletic program during his athletic administrative career - which began with an internship in the Gator Ticket Office in 1976 - was named UF's Director of Athletics in March of 1992.

As chief financial officer for the University Athletic Association (UAA), Foley has spearheaded a number of capital improvement projects in the athletic department, also playing a role in the academic advising center on campus.

Foley's commitment to the overall athletic program includes a plan of increased opportunities for women, as three women's sports have been added under his tenure – soccer, softball and, most recently, lacrosse in 2010.

Florida has been equally successful on the field of play and in the classroom during Foley's administrative tenure. The Florida athletic program has ranked among the nation's top 10 for 28-straight years (1983-84 – 2010-11) and among the top five for 14 times in the of the last 21 years, according to national all-sport rankings.

The 2010-11 athletic year was another banner year in Gainesville. Two Florida teams earned NCAA titles in 2011 – women's tennis and men's indoor track & field – with both wins coming at the home venue of the runner-up. Seven teams (volleyball, gymnastics, softball, baseball, women's tennis, men's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field) were ranked No. 1 in their respective sports at one point during the season.

UF's commitment in the classroom is equally impressive. Under Foley, UF student-athletes have been honored 82 times as Academic All-Americans. The University of Florida has more than 2,500 SEC Academic Honor Roll honorees since 1992-93.

Foley, 58, was named the Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal National Athletic Director of the Year in June of 2006.

Born in Washington, D.C., but calling New London, N.H., home, Foley received his undergraduate degree in 1974 from Hobart College in Geneva, N.Y., where he also coached and scouted for the tradition-rich lacrosse program following graduation. He went on to earn his Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Ohio University in 1976 and then joined the Gator athletic program as an intern in the ticket office.

An avid sports and Boston Red Sox fan, Foley ran the Boston Marathon in a 3:39.51 clip in April of 1995 and completed the course in 3:28.10 in 1998. A dog lover and proud owner of one Labrador retriever, he is involved with the Humane Society and local charities.

LYNDA TEALER
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR – WOMEN'S SPORTS

Lynda Tealer (TEA-ler), one of the nation's top athletic administrators, joined the University of Florida Athletic Association staff in August of 2003 and was elevated to Senior Associate Athletics Director - Senior Woman Administrator in the fall of 2007.

She oversees the UF women's athletics program, as well as the sports health and the human resources departments, while supervising the women's basketball, gymnastics, lacrosse, softball and volleyball programs. Recently, Tealer headed the committee that explored adding a 21st varsity sport to the Gator program; the end result was the announcement of a Gator women's lacrosse team that began competition during the 2009-10 season.

Tealer came to the UAA from the Southland Conference, where she was an Associate Commissioner since April of 2000. During her tenure in Frisco, Texas, Tealer served as the conference's senior woman administrator and oversaw the league's regular season and championship competitions. She also assisted with administrative operations in addition to serving as a liaison for the coaches, championships and senior woman administrators committees.

Prior to joining the Southland Conference, Tealer was at Santa Clara University for four years, joining the Bronco's staff in November of 1995 as the compliance director and was elevated to SCU's Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Services and senior woman administrator five months later. In July of 1999, Tealer was appointed Assistant Athletic Director for Intercollegiate Sports in addition to her senior woman administrator position while providing direction for the sports of men's and women's basketball, women's volleyball, and men's and women's cross country.

While at SCU, Tealer was named to the NCAA Division I Management Council in 1998 as the Division I-AAA at-large representative. She assumed the West Coast Conference representative position (Oct. 1999-Jan. '00) and rejoined the Council as the Southland Conference representative in January of 2001. She also was a member of the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee.

Tealer is a 1992 graduate of the University of San Diego, where she earned a degree in business administration while playing basketball four years for the Toreros. She also possesses a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Texas at Austin School of Law, where she was a member of the Thurgood Marshall Legal Society.

Tealer is a native of San Diego, but was born in Frankfurt, Germany, on March 26, 1970. She and her husband, Cedric, have a son, Dallas (born Sept. 24, 1999), and a daughter, Brooklyn (born Oct. 26, 2005), both of whom conquered the finer points of the Gator chomp at a young age.

#32 JENNIFER GEORGE

6-0 • JUNIOR • FORWARD
ORLANDO, FLA. • BISHOP MOORE HIGH SCHOOL

Jennifer George is easily one of the strongest players on the team with great lower body strength … her increased toughness in paint was on display during the off-season, when she knocked out teammate Lanita Bartley's tooth snaring a rebound … has not missed a game in her Gator career – the only Gator to do so who has played two or more years… made an immediate impact her rookie season, being voted to the 2010 Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team by the league's coaches … gives the Gators a tremendous presence in the paint, as she is a solid rebounder and shot blocker.

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2010-11 academic year was another banner season, as SEC teams were either the national champion or the national runners-up in 10 sports in 2010-11.

SEC teams won six national championships in 2010-11. These include football (Auburn), men's indoor track and field (Florida), baseball (South Carolina), women's tennis (Florida), gymnastics (Alabama) and rifle (Kentucky). The SEC also had national runners-up finishes in baseball (Florida), men's golf (Georgia), softball (Florida), women's swimming and diving (Georgia) and bowling (Vanderbilt).
In all, the SEC had at least one team finish in the top five in 15 of its 20 sponsored sports. The SEC does not sponsor championships in rifle or bowling.

In its 78-year history, the Southeastern Conference has won 189 team national championships, including 67 since 2000. Since 2000, the SEC has won at least one national championship in 16 of its 20 sponsored sports with the exception of women's cross country, volleyball, soccer and softball.

SEC LEADS ALL CONFERENCES IN 2010-11 MEN'S SPORTS CONFERENCE VS. CONFERENCE SURVEY; 3RD IN WOMEN'S SPORTS

In a statistical survey that is based on NCAA championship and rankings, the Southeastern Conference placed first in the nine men's sports it sponsors and third in the 11 women's sports the league sponsors.

The survey, compiled each year since 1986 by Bo Carter, takes into account final NCAA championship standings in each sport and poll rankings in football. Each conference gets 20 points for a team that wins a national championship, 19 for a second place finish and down to 1 point for a 20th place finish.

In the nine men's sports the SEC sponsors, the SEC had 398 points with the Pac-10 coming in second with 322.5 points, followed by the Big 12 with 304.5 points, Big Ten with 260 points, ACC with 255 points and the Mountain West with 85.5 points.

In the 11 women's sports the SEC sponsors, the Pac-10 was first with 572.5 points followed by the Big 12 with 440.5 points and the SEC with 403 points. The ACC was fourth with 276 points followed by the Big Ten at 220.5 and the Big East with 200.5 points.

Combining the 20 sponsored sports, the Pac-10 had 895 points followed by the SEC with 801 points, Big 12 with 745 points, ACC with 531 points, Big Ten with 480.5 points and the Big East with 255.5 points.

The SEC has had the highest men's point total in 18 of the last 20 seasons (exceptions: 2007-08: Big 12; 1997-98: Pac-10). The Pac-10 has had the highest women's point totals each year since 1986 with the exception of five years the SEC has had the highest total (1990-91; 1995-96; 2004-05; 2006-07; 2009-10).

SEC TELEVISION PACKAGES

ESPN & SEC Reach Unprecedented 15-Year Agreement

On Aug. 25, 2008, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference (SEC) announced it had reached a milestone 15-year agreement beginning in 2009-10 and continuing through 2023-24.

The landmark deal - the longest national rights agreement in ESPN history -- will result in ESPN entities (ESPN, ESPN on ABC, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN Regional Television, ESPN360.com, ESPN Mobile TV, ESPN GamePlan, ESPN FULL COURT, ESPN International, ESPN Deportes, ESPN Classic) carrying more than 5,500 SEC events - including football, men's and women's basketball, Olympic sports and SEC Championships.

ESPN has televised the SEC since 1982. All national programming will fall under the branding "SEC on ESPN."

As part of this agreement with regard to SEC Women's Basketball:

ESPN AND ESPN2

SEC teams will make a minimum of 16 appearances (minimum of 4 conference games) on ESPN or ESPN2 and one of the networks will also televise the conference tournament championship game.

ESPNU

The network will also feature a minimum of 16 appearances (minimum of 4 conference games) by SEC teams, in addition to the SEC Tournament semifinals.

ESPN REGIONAL TELEVISION (KNOWN AS THE SEC NETWORK)

ERT will syndicate a game-of-the-week during the regular season. The markets that will air the package represent more than 54 million television households, or 47 percent of the U.S.

FOX Sports Net and SEC Women's Basketball

FOX Sports Net (FSN), the nation's leader in local sports, announced on July 15, 2009, a new multi-year television rights agreement with ESPN that expands its long-time partnership with the Southeastern Conference (SEC). ESPN secured the rights of SEC content in August 2008.

Beginning with the 2009-10 academic year, FSN's three regional sports networks serving the SEC territory – FOX Sports South, Sun Sports and FOX Sports Southwest – will be the outlets for a minimum of 91 SEC athletic events each year. Events will include:

- Seven live, exclusive football games
- 20 men's basketball games
- 24 women's basketball games (16 regular season, eight tournament)
- 16 baseball games (10 regular season, six tournament)
- 24 additional Olympic sporting events (softball, volleyball, soccer, gymnastics)

FSN will distribute these events to more than 24 million cable and satellite households across the SEC coverage area.

FOX Sports South – and its sister networks FOX Sports Carolinas and FOX Sports Tennessee – collectively reach more than 12.6 million cable and satellite television households in seven states in the Southeast, including Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. Sun Sports reaches more than 6.5 million homes in Florida. FOX Sports Southwest reaches over 10.1 million cable and satellite TV homes in Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and parts of New Mexico.

CSS (COMCAST/CHARTER SPORTS SOUTHEAST)

The network will air a minimum of 16 regular-season games each year

2010-11 SEASON REVIEW

FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

2010-11 SEASON REVIEW

2010-11 SEASON REVIEW

The 2010-11 Gator women's basketball team was a young, inexperienced group, with just five actual letterwinners returning from last year's squad that earned the Southeastern Conference's automatic berth into the Postseason WNIT.

Then-juniors Jordan Jones and Azania Stewart started the majority of games the previous season, with Jones UF's leading returning scorer with 9.1 points per game and Stewart the SEC's field goal percentage leader in 2009-10, when she hit 61.9 percent.

Forward Jennifer George, named to the 2010 All-SEC Freshman Team, was the Gators' leading returning rebounder, as she collected 5.2 per game, while contributing 6.6 points.

Six newcomers filled the roster, with four true freshmen who rated as the nation's 21st-best signing class by ESPN HoopGurlz.

Having lost the majority of its starters and scorers from the 2009-10 campaign didn't stop Florida from digging deep and earning the program's 18th postseason appearance.

The Gators, whose roster featured just one senior, won six of its final eight games of the 2010-11 season and built momentum toward the future.

FANS GOT THEIR MONEY'S WORTH!

Twenty-three of UF's program-record 35 games were decided by 10 points or fewer, with 16 being six-point differences - including the final two of the season.

The Gators were 14-9 in games decided by 10 points or less.

NOT AGAIN!

During the 2009-10 season, the Gators played 15 games decided by fewer than 10 points and posted an 8-7 in those outings.

POSTSEASON RUN

Florida defeated UMBC (59-47) and Florida Gulf Coast (74-69) to advance the WNIT round of 16, where the Gators dropped a difficult 81-77 overtime decision at Charlotte.

FLORIDA IN THE POSTSEASON

Florida's inclusion in the 2011 WNIT marked the 17th time in the last 19 years the Gators earned a berth in a postseason tournament. Florida has a total of 18 postseason appearances.

POSTSEASON VICTORIES

The Gators' two wins in the 2011 WNIT was just the fifth time the program has won a pair of games in a postseason event.

The 2000 club won four games en route to reaching the WNIT championship game, but lost at Wisconsin, 75-74.

The 1997 NCAA squad won three games and marched into the Elite Eight before it fell to Old Dominion, 53-51.

TENTH TIME FOR 20 WINS

Florida's 74-69 win at FGCU marked the team's 20th victory of the year. It was the 10th 20-win season in program history. The Gators' last 20-win season was in 2008-09, when the squad tied a program record with 24 wins.

Two of those 20-win campaigns have come under Amanda Butler.

UF'S REGULAR-SEASON RESUME

In the NCAA's final report, Florida's RPI was No. 41 with a strength of schedule rated No. 11.

TOUGH TEAMS

Of the 25 different teams on UF's regular-season schedule this year, 13 played in the postseason. The Gators posted a 4-9 record against nine teams in NCAA Tournament and a 6-3 record versus six teams in the WNIT ... for a combined regular-season record of 10-12 versus 2011 postseason teams.

UF's NCAA Tournament opponents included: Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Georgia, Kentucky, DePaul, Florida State, Hampton, UCF and Navy.

The teams in the WNIT field included: Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, South Carolina, Old Dominion and Charlotte.

EVERY YEAR UNDER BUTLER

Florida's inclusion in the WNIT field was the program's fourth consecutive postseason appearance - every year under head coach Amanda Butler.

Butler became the FIRST coach in program history to guide the Gators to a postseason berth in each of her first three years … and now in each of her first four seasons; in 2007-08, Butler became the FIRST to lead the Gators to a postseason bid in their first year at UF.

STRONG FINAL STRETCH

Florida ended its regular season winning three consecutive SEC games, as the squad earned victories against Mississippi State (78-63 - its largest margin of victory in an SEC game this year), at Vanderbilt (74-69 - in Nashville, where the Gators last won on Feb. 1, 2004) and at home against No. 22-ranked Georgia (74-71 - stretching its home win streak vs. Georgia to a program-record three).

The Gators then added one more win to its late-season win streak, defeating Arkansas, 68-59, in the first round of the SEC Tournament.

2010-11 SEASON REVIEW

THREE STRAIGHT VS. REGULAR-SEASON CHAMPS

The March 21st game was UF's third consecutive outing against a team that won its respective conference's regular-season championship: Tennessee won the SEC, UMBC won the America East and FGCU won the Atlantic Sun.

IN ALL KINDS OF WEATHER ...

For what is believed to be the first time in program history, the Gators had a regular-season game postponed because of weather. Vanderbilt officials heeded the advice of local police and emergency agencies in Nashville, which was experiencing severe watches and warnings on Thu., Feb. 24. The game was played on Friday when Florida emerged with a 74-69 win for its first win in Nashville since Feb. 1, 2004.

Jaterra Bonds earned a place on the 2011 SEC All-Freshman Team by the league's coaches.*

SENIOR EXAMPLE

Ebonie Crawford, the lone senior on the 2010-11 team, graduated on Sat., Dec. 18 with a Bachelor of Arts in Criminology. Former Gator letterwinner Sharielle Smith (2006-10) also completed her undergraduate requirements and received on Saturday a Bachelor of Science in Telecommunication - Production.

LEADING THE WAY

Jordan Jones led the balanced Gator scoring effort, recording 10.2 points per game, hitting a team-leading 72 three-pointers at a 38.7 percent clip and playing 32.6 minutes per outing.

Azania Stewart was Florida's leading rebounder with 6.1 per game and hit 52.7 percent of her shots from the floor. Her 62 blocked shots also was tops for the Gators and ranked second in the SEC.

Lanita Bartley dished a team-leading 3.4 assists and collected a team-high 1.77 steals, while finding her way to the free throw a team-best 132 times.

JONES HEATED UP

Jordan Jones, the Gators' leader from long range, hit 15-of-30 three-pointers (50.0%) during the final six games.

Overall, Jones was 72-of-186 from long range for 38.7%, the second-highest accuracy mark in a season in UF history. Her 72 treys tied for the seventh-most in a season.

During her two-year tenure at UF, Jones has drained 127 three-pointers, the sixth most in a career.

WHO FINISHED HOT

During the last FIVE games, Jaterra Bonds averaged a team-leading 15.6 points, hitting 36.4 percent from the three-point arc (12-33) with eight assists.

Also during the final five games, Deana Allen averaged 10.4 points and 3.8 rebounds, while dishing 13 assists with six steals.

JUST FINE FROM THE LINE

Lanita Bartley, who solidified the Gators' win at Vanderbilt (Feb. 25) with four free throws in the final 13.6 seconds, stepped to the line and hit one of two against No. 22 Georgia (27) with 9.4 seconds remaining that gave the Gators a three-point lead, 74-71, and ended the game's scoring as the Bulldogs failed to get off a shot in their final possession.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Florida finished the 2010-11 season sporting a modest 11-game non-conference home winning streak which included an 8-0 record in 2010-11. It is the sixth-longest streak in program history.

ONE TO GO

With the Gators' 74-69 win against the Commodores on Feb. 25, Vanderbilt became the 10th of the 11 other SEC programs UF's fourth-year head coach Amanda Butler has defeated during her Gator tenure. LSU is the only school remaining that Butler has yet to defeat in four outings.

2010-11 SEASON REVIEW

a home-and-home series against Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt.

STEWART'S SWATS

Junior Azania Stewart became the seventh Gator in program history to block at least 100 career shots, when she swatted Georgia's Jasmine Hassell's shot with 16:21 remaining in the first half of the January 16th game in Athens. She is the first to reach the milestone since Aneika Henry in 2007-09.

BY GEORGE, THAT'S DEFENSE!

Jennifer George blocked a career-high nine shots in the win against Alabama State (Dec. 20). The 6-foot-0 forward tied for the second-most rejections in a single game in school history. Vanessa Hayden holds the school record with 10 blocked shots against Kent State on Dec. 29, 2001. George became just the second different player in school history to chart nine or more blocks in a single game.

GENEROUS BONDS

Freshman guard Jaterra Bonds dished out a career-high nine assists during the win against Alabama State (Dec. 20), marking the most charted by any Gator player since Sha Brooks dished out 10 assists against Arkansas on Feb. 1, 2009. Bonds also scored 13 points in the game.

IT'S NOT ABOUT WHO STARTS...

Last year, Coach Butler drew up a total of 11 different starting lineups, including a new one in nine of the last 11 games. Florida has used EIGHT different line-ups in 2010-11.

TOURNAMENT HONORS

PRESEASON WNIT

- Jordan Jones earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team, as she helped the Gators reach the semifinals after totaling 36 points, nine rebounds, six assists and four steals during the three-game run.

DEAD RIVER COMPANY CLASSIC:

- Azania Stewart was named the MVP as she helped UF win the tournament title, highlighted by her rebounding display when she collected 24 boards during the two games.
- Jordan Jones was selected to the All-Tournament Team after tying Stewart as UF's leading scorer during the two games, while averaging 37 minutes.

GATOR HOLIDAY CLASSIC:

- Brittany Shine was named Most Outstanding Performer of the Gator Holiday Classic, Shine totaled 47 points and 10 assists, while shooting 47.4 percent from the field, including a 42.9 percent (6-14) from the three-point arc as she helped Florida capture the Gator Holiday Classic Tournament title. She became only third freshman in 20-year history of tournament to be named its MOP.
- Jaterra Bonds earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team as she produced 26 points and 12 assists in the two-game event, including 13 points in the title game. Bonds just missed a double-double in the first round when she dished nine assists.

Amanda Butler collected her 100th career head coach victory on Nov. 15, 2010, in the Gator's 76-70 win against Charlotte.

LET IT SNOW! LET IT SNOW! LET IT SNOW!

The Gators awoke the morning of Nov. 26 in Orono, Maine, to snow-covered roads and a steady falling of snow, the first ever sighting of it by Jaterra Bonds (Gainesville, Fla.), Deana Allen (Houma, La.) and Deaundra Young (Titusville, Fla.).

#100 IN THE BOOK

Amanda Butler earned her 100th career coaching victory with Florida's 76-70 win against Charlotte on Nov. 15, 2010. Her record at the time of the milestone mark was 100-61 in her six years on the sideline. Ironically, Butler earned the first 40 of those wins during her two seasons as head coach at Charlotte.

GATOR DEBUTS

Florida's six newcomers combined to score 40 points, collect 25 rebounds, block six shots and dish eight assists in the Gators' season-opening win against UCF.

CAPTAINS

In a vote by their teammates, juniors Jordan Jones and Azania Stewart were elected as captains for the 2010-11 season.

WELCOME HOME

Women's basketball assistant coach Murriel Page, who completed her first year on the coaching sideline, was inducted into UF's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009, after enjoying an All-American career from 1994-98. She was the inaugural pick by the WNBA's Washington Mystics franchise in 1998 and enjoyed an 11-year WNBA career.

HISTORY OF FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Sue Chambers was the first woman to receive a basketball scholarship at UF.

Winter 1972 – Dr. Ruth Alexander, Donna Deutsch, Mimi Ryan and Linda Hall Thornton, with the assistance of Dr. Clifford Boyd, write the official proposal suggesting guidelines for an intercollegiate athletics program at the University of Florida.

March 1972 – The University of Florida's Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics unanimously approves the proposal with the effective date to be the 1972-73 school year.

1973-74 school year – The inaugural UF women's basketball squad is a club team and posts an 11-8 record under coach Darlene Wyrnak, who is a graduate assistant at the school. Members of that team include Valerie Bazarte, Susie Brownlee, Sue Chambers, Emma Gracey, Vicky Lavinsky, Cassie Macias, Kathy Wagner and Monte Wynn.

July 1974 – Dr. Paula Welch is hired as the Lady Gators first official coach and teaches in the Women's Physical Education Department.

Jan. 13, 1975 – Florida makes its varsity debut in Alligator Alley, but Valdosta State spoils the team's opener, defeating UF 57-47 despite 17 points from Sue Chambers.

Jan. 18, 1975 – Emma Gracey's 14 points leads the Lady Gators to their first-ever win, a 51-47 victory over Rollins College and sparks a seven-game winning streak.

"One of the funniest moments I can remember was when (coach) Mickie DeMoss was giving us a pep talk at half time in the lockeroom and stomping her foot on the floor. Her heel came off and flew across the lockeroom but she didn't want to crack a smile and spoil the moment so she hobbled over to the chalk board and continued to draw plays."

1993 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

In just her third season as Lady Gators Head Coach, Carol Ross was able to achieve a first in the program's 18-year history: earn a bid to the 48-team NCAA Tournament field. Led by senior captain LaTonya McGhee and junior guard Amanda Butler, Florida proved it belonged in postseason play. The Lady Gators opened the tournament on the road at Bowling Green State University on March 17 before a school-record crowd of 4,408 in Anderson Arena, which was also the third largest crowd attendance in a first round game. UF halted the Falcons' perfect 13-0 home record when McGhee banked in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining to give UF the thrilling 69-67 victory. Merlakia Jones led UF with 18 points and Bridget Pettis added 17 in the historic win. The Lady Gators traveled again in the second round, but came up short against postseason veteran Virginia in front of 5,740 Cavalier faithful. McGhee ended her career with a 14-point effort but more importantly helped lay the foundation for seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

1994 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Under the leadership of senior captain Amanda Butler, the Lady Gators reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. The Gators matched a school-record 22 wins and finished third in the SEC. Junior Merlakia Jones led UF offensively with 18.6 points per game, while DeLisha Milton averaged a double-double of 11.7 points and 11.5 rebounds during her freshman campaign. The Lady Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA West Region and were eligible to play host to their first round game, but were forced to travel to College Station, Texas, due to a Rod Stewart concert scheduled in the O'Connell Center. Florida rallied from a 14-point deficit against hosting Texas A&M and tied the score at 74 with 2:31 remaining after senior Kerry Cremeans caned a three-pointer off an assist from Butler. Takilya Davis later hit a jumper to give UF a 76-74 lead. With the score knotted at 76, the Gators turned the ball over with 21 seconds left and the Aggies converted two free throws with four ticks on the clock to end UF's season.

1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators earned their third consecutive bid to the NCAA Championship, one of just 22 schools to advance to "The Dance" for the third straight year. Led by captains DeLisha Milton and Crystal Parker, the team won a school-record 24 wins and finished fourth in the SEC. During the first round of the NCAA East Regional in Charlottesville, Va., UF played Radford and easily defeated the Highlanders 89-49. Both Merlakia Jones and Milton produced double-doubles and Dana Smith contributed three second-half treys. In the second round, and for the second time in three years, the Lady Gators faced a ranked Virginia squad on its home floor. The team was in position for an upset, but the Cavalier proved to be too strong, winning 72-67. UF was led by Merlakia Jones' 27 points, who became the first Gator to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau, ending her career with 2,001. Freshman Murriel Page showed signs of the All-American she would later develop into, averaging 10.6 points and 7.2 rebounds during her rookie season.

1996 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the fourth time in school history, the Lady Gators secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Led by team captains DeLisha Milton and Mahogany Hudson, Florida earned the No. 5 seed in the Mideast Region and became one of 16 teams to earn four straight NCAA bids. Crystal Parker also became the first player in Lady Gator history to be a member of four NCAA Tournament teams. UF ran into red-shot San Francisco in the opening round, falling 68-61, as the Lady Dons marched into the Sweet 16 by upsetting host Duke in the next game. Former Gator Amanda Butler broke into the coaching ranks this year, when Head Coach Carol Ross hired her as an assistant coach at the start of the season.

1997 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 1996-97 academic year marked the 25th season of women's varsity athletics at the University of Florida and the Lady Gator Basketball team ensured it would not be soon forgotten, staging the most impressive postseason run in program history. First-Team All-American DeLisha Milton, along with fellow co-captain Mahogany Hudson, led the Lady Gators a 24-9 overall record. As the No. 3 seed in the Mideast Region, UF was selected to play host to an NCAA Sub-Regional for the first time and responded, thumping Florida International, 92-68, behind 21 points from Dana Smith and a career-high six 3-pointers from Talatha Bingham. Murriel Page scored 35 points with 14 rebounds in a 92-78 victory over Southern California and the Lady Gators marched into the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history. UF's magical run did not stop there, as UF routed fifth-ranked and second-seeded Louisiana Tech, 71-57, to advance to the Elite Eight. The historical season finally came to an end when second-ranked and top-seeded Old Dominion managed a 53-51 decision, as UF had three shots in the final 10 seconds that would have tied the score, but all just rolled around the rim.

1998 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Led by First-Team All-American Murriel Page and her fellow senior co-captains Mahogany Hudson and Dana Smith, the Lady Gators fought through an injury-plagued season to a 23-9 record, their fifth consecutive 20-win season and a second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. UF became one of just 12 schools to compete in each of the last six NCAA Tournaments, while earning its second consecutive trip to the Sweet 16. UF was rewarded for its outstanding regular-season play, being named one of 16 schools to host an NCAA Sub-Regional, which it did for the second straight year. In a bracket plagued with upsets (highlighted by No. 16-seed Harvard defeating No. 1-seed Stanford), the third-seeded Lady Gators couldn't continue the fun as they fell to No. 2-seeded Duke, 71-58.

1999 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators knew that matching the success of the past two seasons would be tough, especially after losing three key seniors. Even with an uphill battle, Florida, led by team captain Talatha Bingham, was still strong enough to earn its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament bid - one of just 11 teams to compete in the "Big Dance" every year since 1993. UF was also one of a record-setting eight SEC schools to secure a bid. The Lady Gators would not dance long, however, dropping a frustrating 87-84 overtime decision to Arizona in the opening round.

2001 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 2000-01 season was one of the most exciting in school history, as the Lady Gators tied a school record with 24 wins and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains Tombi Bell, Misty Knight and Tamara Stocks were fueled all season by what they felt was a snub from the 2000 event and led Florida to a second-place tie in the Southeastern Conference, winning a program-best 11 league games. This was the eighth overall trip to the "Big Dance" for the Gators and their third time playing host to the opening rounds.

2002 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the ninth time in 10 years, Carol Ross successfully led the Lady Gators to the NCAA Tournament. Stunningly, it would be her last because six days after the final horn sounded on Florida's opening-round loss, Ross stepped down as winningest head coach in school history, with a record of 247-121. The team was led by senior tri-captains Monique Cardenas, Lindsey DeLoach and Brandi McCain.

Head Coach Carolyn Peck guided UF to the greatest one-year turnaround in school history, bouncing back from a 9-19 record the previous season to a 19-11 record and an NCAA Tournament bid. Captains Vanessa Hayden, Sarah Lowe and Kelly Stevenson led the Gators to a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round for the sixth time in school history. UF overcame 16,000 deafening New Mexico fans at The Pit with an opening-round 68-56 win against the hosting Lobos, before falling in the next game to Baylor, which went on to win the NCAA title the following season.

2006 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Fueled by two of the biggest upset wins in program history, the Gators earned their way back into the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Senior tri-captain Sarah Lowe hit the game-winning free throws with 3.2 seconds remaining in overtime to help the Gators upset No. 2 LSU, 79-78, in UF's final home game. A few nights later, senior tri-captain Brittany Davis poured in a career-high 29 points to help stun No. 5 Tennessee in the regular-season finale, as UF became just the second unranked team ever to defeat the Lady Vols in Knoxville. The Gators, who raced out to the best 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15-game starts in program history en route to a 21-9 overall record, received the No. 6 seed in the NCAA Albuquerque Region but dropped their opening-round game to New Mexico, 83-59.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

With senior Sha Brooks leading the backcourt and senior Marsahe Dotson patrolling the frontcourt, the Gators won four games against nationally-ranked teams, including three upset victories, and earned their 12th NCAA Tournament appearance. Amanda Butler became the sixth woman in NCAA history to play for and later coach that same team to a top-25 ranking, as the 2008-09 squad ranked as high as No. 9 in the Feb. 9 AP Poll. Newcomer Steffi Sorensen led a record-setting three-point shooting display, as the Gators set new marks with 221 three-pointers and hitting with a 36.5 percent accuracy mark. UF downed Temple, 70-57, in the NCAA First Round and tied a program record with its 24th win of the season. The Gators fell in the next round to eventual champion Connecticut, which played on its home court and raced to an undefeated season.

Marshae Dotson is congratulated by head coach Amanda Butler after Dotson became the 20th and most recent Gator to join the 1,000-point club, eclipsing the milestone against Mississippi State on Feb. 10, 2008.

On Dec. 22, 2007 versus Saint Louis, junior Sha Brooks became the 19th Gator to score 1,000 points during her career, nailing a three-pointer from the right side of the arc that put her over the top of the milestone. She eclipsed the mark in her 72nd career game, the seventh fastest in program history.

Sophia Witherspoon (left) and Rhvonja Smith both scored the 1,000th point of their respective careers during the same game - Dec. 13, 1990 versus Alabama-Huntsville.

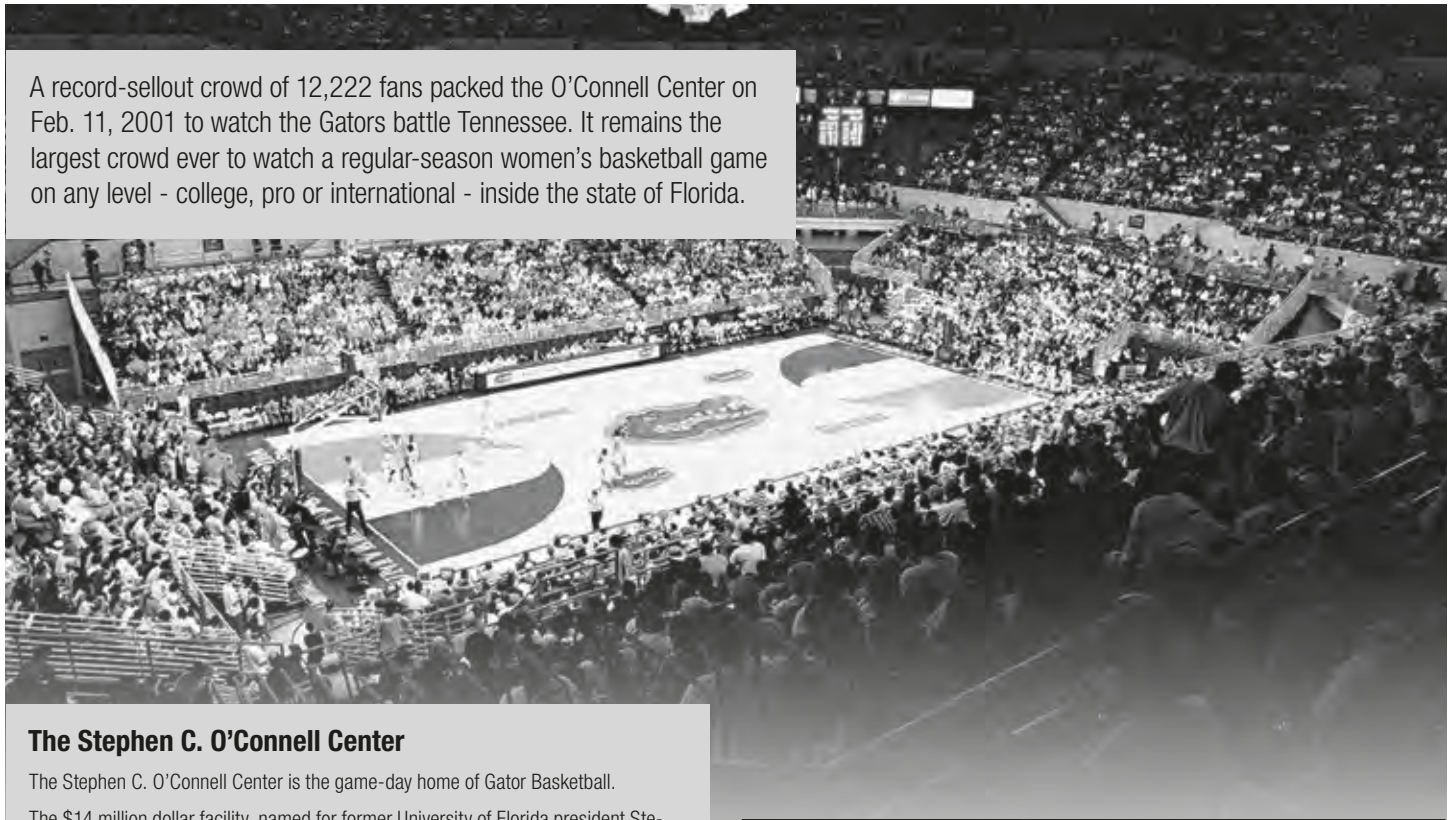
THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER



STEPHEN MORTON

A record-sellout crowd of 12,222 fans packed the O'Connell Center on Feb. 11, 2001 to watch the Gators battle Tennessee. It remains the largest crowd ever to watch a regular-season women's basketball game on any level - college, pro or international - inside the state of Florida.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center is the game-day home of Gator Basketball.

The $14 million dollar facility, named for former University of Florida president Stephen C. O'Connell (196773), has become a showcase for collegiate basketball. The multipurpose sports center features a main arena, which underwent improvements during the summer of 2011 and is capable of seating 11,373 spectators and fans, covering more than 3.6 acres and containing 292,000 square feet.

The structure housed the Gator Basketball offices prior to the opening of the new UF Basketball Complex in October of 2001.

In addition to the main arena, the O'Connell Center houses the practice court, two weight rooms, a natatorium, an indoor track, a private gymnastics arena, dance studio, martial arts studio and several classrooms. The indoor track, which underwent resurfacing during the summer of 2002, and the Olympic size pool are considered amongst the fastest race locations in the country.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center is also the site of University of Florida graduation ceremonies, as well as many other university functions, including Career Day. The facility has also accommodated numerous NCAA championship events, concerts, step shows, comedians, guest speakers, Disney shows, conventions and banquets.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center has been the site of all Gator Basketball games since its opening in 1981.

The Gators' home court has a championship-feel to it -- literally! During the 2006 national championship celebration for the men's team, the UAA administration unveiled the 2006 Final Four floor, which it purchased so that both teams could play on for the 2006-07 season once it was refinished and Gatorized. Also new in the O'Connell Center for the 2006-07 season was four 12' x 16' videoboards (10 mm resolution). The total cost of the video project was $2.5 million.

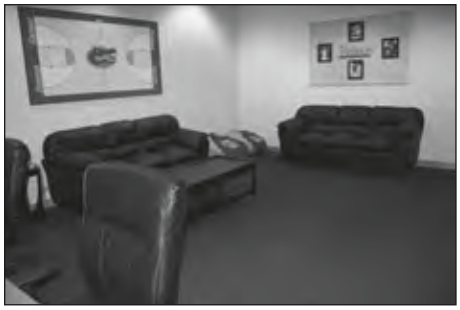
FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

The Basketball Complex underwent a $1.8 million facelift that was completed in September of 2007, when dynamic floor-to-ceiling graphics, display cases and video displays were installed throughout the building.

Florida's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility opened in October of 2001, with the initial $10 million securing the two-story, 47,505-square foot facility highlighted by full-sized practice courts for both the Gator men's and women's teams, in addition to the coaches' offices and team locker rooms.

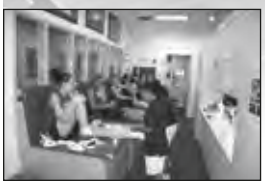
FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX



The Gator locker room is a home-away-from-home.

The Gator Women's Basketball Wall of Honor, which is along the East wall of the balcony that overlooks the Terry Frost Women's Practice Court, was created in the spring of 2009. Coach Butler selected as the initial honoree Paula Welch, the first full-time head coach in program history.

The Terry Frost Women's Practice Court features six baskets, Conner (Uniforce with NIKE Grind) wood floor and observation/video taping balcony. As part of the 2007 facelift, a Coach's Command Center with internal AV equipment is housed behind thick plex along the wall of the practice court for coaches and players to watch immediate on-court video.



The athletic training room, which houses its own whirlpool, is conveniently located steps away from the practice court.

The 1,900-square foot weight room features multiple strength and conditioning stations and ample room for agility and core drills, while providing office space for the strength coaches. Part of the 2007 facelift included dynamic super graphics displayed along the walls of the weight room.

Images of Gator All-Americans adorn the corner between the hallway's to the team locker room and the training room, practice court and weight room corridor.
